Messages from the Library

Happy Birthday David! The library would like to thank David who had his birthday earlier this month for donating a new soccer book to the library. World Football Records just released their 9th edition with all the updated data regarding national teams. This always popular book filled with facts about players and country records is one of the books which is regularly off the shelves. Thanks David for supporting the library, we hope you enjoy reading the book first.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to TAISM Parent, Lana Wimmer, who recently published a book she co-authored on the life of an expat. Lana's book, Unpack: A Guide to Life as an Expat Spouse, is a guidebook with straightforward answers to challenges and opportunities expats experience in their life abroad. When sharing her book's purpose she shared that she and her co-author, Tanya Arler, wrote the book "to be a resource to help expats, especially those new to the process, so they won't feel isolated." Lana's book is available on Amazon.com as well as locally at the "Let's Read" bookshop located in Al Qurm Complex.

Congratulations Lana!
